Communion and Musical Interlude                      Penny
Communion is served by coming forward. If you are able, please come and accept communion at the table. On the outer circle will be a cup of juice and the next circle will be a cup with a piece of bread. Please take one of each. Partake as you are ready and return the empty cups to the holders on the back of the pews or in the provided trash can at the table.
